Advent: A time of waiting in joyful hope

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We begin the liturgical year C with the season of Advent. When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming" (CCC 524). I'd like to explain briefly the symbols of Advent.

The Advent wreath: It is traditionally made of evergreen branches formed into a circle with 4 candles held within. The evergreen circle is a symbol of eternal life or the eternity of God. Green from the evergreen is considered a symbol of hope.

The Candles: Advent Candles are usually comprised of three purple candles with one rose or pink. The candles recall the weeks that pass until Christmas. Purple candles symbolize waiting and penitential disposition but not in the same way as Lent. Rose or Pink is used on the third Sunday of Advent to symbolize rejoicing (Gaudete). The white candle called "Christ Candle" symbolizes Christ being the light of the world coming through the darkness. Many people consider the lighting of the first candle to symbolize expectation, while the second, the third and fourth respectively symbolize hope, joy, and purity. The Christ candle is lit on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day reminding Christians that Jesus is the light of the world. Let us long together for the Lord's coming. Advent is for us a season of hopeful longing, joyful expectation, prayerful penance, and Spiritual preparation.

As you may know, this first Sunday of advent marks the beginning of my tenure as Parish Administrator. During six months, we will continue to respond together to our call to holiness by "living our lives with love, by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves" (Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exultate, 14). I will ensure that our Parish continues to be a vibrant community where "people feel that they are known, recognized, welcomed, listened to, and loved. I also ask you to keep our Pastor in your prayers as he begins his sabbatical time. I finally exhort you to join us for the upcoming celebrations of the Novena and the Feast of our Lady of Guadalupe.

I wish you and your loved ones a fruitful and joyful Advent Season.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Deogratias Mbonyumugenzi, Parish Administrator

Desde el escritorio del P. Deo.

Adviento: Un tiempo de espera en gozosa esperanza

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Comenzamos el año litúrgico C con el tiempo de Adviento. Cuando la Iglesia celebra la liturgia de Adviento cada año, hace presente esta antigua espera del Mesías, pues al participar en la larga preparación para la primera venida del Salvador, los fieles renuevan su ardiente deseo de su segunda venida" (CIC 524). Me gustaría explicar brevemente los símbolos del Adviento.

La corona de Adviento: Tradicionalmente está hecha de ramas de hoja perenne formadas en un círculo con 4 velas sostenidas en su interior. El círculo de hoja perenne es un símbolo de la vida eterna o la eternidad de Dios. El verde de la hoja perenne se considera un símbolo de esperanza.

Las velas: Las velas de Adviento generalmente se componen de tres velas moradas con una rosa o rosa. Las velas recuerdan las semanas que pasan hasta Navidad. Las velas moradas simbolizan la espera y la disposición penitencial, pero no de la misma manera que la Cuaresma. El rosa o rosado se usa el tercer domingo de Adviento para simbolizar el regocijo (Gaudete). La vela blanca llamada "Vela de Cristo" simboliza a Cristo siendo la luz del mundo que viene a través de la oscuridad. Mucha gente considera que el encendido de la primera vela simboliza la expectativa, mientras que la segunda, la tercera y la cuarta, respectivamente, simbolizan la esperanza, la alegría y la pureza. La vela de Cristo se enciende en Nochebuena o el día de Navidad para recordar a los cristianos que Jesús es la luz del mundo. Anhelemos juntos la venida del Señor. El Adviento es para nosotros una temporada de anhelo esperanzador, expectativa gozosa, penitencia de oración y preparación espiritual.

Como sabrán, este primer domingo de adviento marca el comienzo de mi mandato como Administrador Parroquial. Durante seis meses, seguiremos respondiendo juntos a nuestro llamado a la santidad "viviendo nuestra vida con amor, dando testimonio en todo lo que hacemos, dondequiera que nos encontremos" (Papa Francisco, Gaudete et Exultate, 14). Me aseguraré de que nuestra parroquia siga siendo una comunidad vibrante donde "las personas se sientan conocidas, reconocidas, acogidas, escuchadas y amadas". También les pido que tengan a nuestro pastor en sus oraciones mientras comienza su tiempo sabático. Finalmente, los exhorto a unirse a nosotros para las próximas celebraciones de la Novena y la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.

Les deseo a ustedes y a sus seres queridos un fructífero y alegre tiempo de Adviento.

Suyo en Cristo,

P. Deogratias Mbonyumugenzi, Administrador Parroquial

Advent Practice for Our Community

Advent is a time of anticipating the birth of Jesus. In this sense of anticipation, the Liturgy Committee invites you to take a handmade angel found in the entrance area of the church beginning next weekend and write down the name of an expectant mother or a mother with a three-year old child or under. The purpose of our Advent Practice is to pray for these expectant mothers and mothers of children three or under during this Advent Season. Beginning the First week of Advent, you will find a simple Advent branch where your completed angel may be hung. It symbolizes that our anticipation and love for Jesus and our community especially for our expectant and young mothers, is a real and growing practice!

Práctica de Adviento para Nuestra Comunidad

El Adviento es un tiempo para anticipar el nacimiento de Jesús. En este sentido de anticipación, el Comité de Liturgia lo invita a tomar un angel que se encuentra en el área de entrada de la iglesia empezando hoy y escribir el nombre de una futura madre o una madre con un niño de tres años o menos. . El propósito de nuestra práctica de Adviento es orar por estas futuras madres y madres de niños de tres años o menos durante esta temporada de Adviento. A partir de la primera semana de Adviento, encontrará una sencilla rama de Adviento donde se puede colgar su estrella. ¡Simboliza que nuestra anticipación y amor por Jesús y nuestra comunidad especialmente para nuestras futuras madres, es una práctica real y creciente!

First Sunday of Advent Reflection

This first Sunday of Advent we read, pray, and reflect on the hope God's plan gives us. The readings for the First Sunday in Advent for Year C are a call to be alert in waiting for the coming of the Lord. The First Reading (Jeremiah 33: 14-16) assures us that the Lord will fulfill his promises to Israel and Judah. The Psalm (Psalm 25:4-5, 8-9, 10,14) reminds us that the Lord will teach us his paths. The Second Reading (1 Thessalonians 3: 12-4:2) encourages the Thessalonians, and in fact, all of us, to be holy and to please God. The Gospel Reading (Luke 21: 25-28, 34-36) finds Jesus teaching his disciples to be vigilant so that they will be ready when the Son of Man comes in glory.

Este primer domingo de Adviento leemos, oramos y reflexionamos sobre la esperanza que nos da el plan de Dios. Las lecturas del primer domingo de Adviento del año C son un llamado a estar alertas en espera de la venida del Señor. La primera lectura (Jeremías 33: 14-16) nos asegura que el Señor cumplirá sus promesas a Israel y Judá. El Salmo (Salmo 25: 4-5, 8-9, 10,14) nos recuerda que el Señor nos enseñará sus caminos. La segunda lectura (1 Tesalonicenses 3: 12-4: 2) anima a los tesalonicenses, y de hecho, a todos nosotros, a ser santos y agradar a Dios. La lectura del Evangelio (Lucas 21: 25-28, 34-36) encuentra a Jesús enseñando a sus discípulos a estar vigilantes para que estén listos cuando el Hijo del Hombre venga en gloria.

Pro-Life Update December 2024

As was mentioned in our Pro-Life Update last month ten states had abortion related referenda on their ballots on November 5, 2024. The results yielded more bad news than good. First the good news. The voters in Florida, Nebraska, and South Dakota rendered favorable decisions. In Florida, the ballot initiative would have instituted a state constitutional right to abortion any time before fetal viability. Fortunately, that proposed amendment failed to achieve the required 60 % needed to become law. Therefore, the current Florida law, prohibiting abortion after six weeks gestation--the Heartbeat Protection Act--remains in effect. The South Dakota amendment would have instituted a sort of sliding scale of certain abortion restrictions for each trimester. This initiative was defeated by the voters and, as a result the South Dakota statute banning abortion except to save the life of the mother will stand. In Nebraska there were two amendments presented to the voters. One of them, which would have granted a right to an abortion until viability and even later under certain circumstances, was defeated. The other measure passed. That law prohibits abortions in the second and third trimesters and allows them in the first trimester only for medical emergencies and pregnancies resulting from sexual assault and incest.

The other seven states passed pro-abortion propositions. Each of those propositions, although worded a bit differently, establishes a constitutional right to abortion at least until viability. Five of these states had laws which were essentially pro-abortion anyway, but that position is clearly strengthened as it is now enshrined in those states' constitutions. In Arizona, the law previously allowed abortion only up to 15 weeks of pregnancy. Now the Arizona state constitution establishes a right to abortion up to the point of fetal viability which is usually considered to be around 24 weeks. The most dramatic pro-abortion turnaround occurred in Missouri which previously banned all abortions except those to save the life of the mother or to prevent serious risk to the mother's health. After adoption of the proposed amendment, Missouri law provides that the state may regulate abortion only after fetal viability. This is indeed, very unfortunate, especially given the pre-election Missouri law barring most abortions.

While there were a few bright spots, this election signifies continued advancement of pro-abortion policies in various states via direct electoral action by their voters. After the United States Supreme Court case reversing Roe v. Wade was decided in 2022 six states, in addition to the five states discussed above, passed pro-abortion referenda—Ohio, California, Kansas, Michigan, Montana and Vermont. In 1973, the Roe v. Wade case drastically but incorrectly invalidated the vast majority of the existing state laws which prohibited elective abortions. That decision resulted in the death of approximately 60,000,000 unborn human beings over a period of almost one-half century. It seems quite likely that the legality of abortion over such a very long period had a profound if seriously immoral effect on public opinion. How can we explain such a large shift in United States law from virtually total opposition to abortion in 1973 to the recent trend of several states legalizing abortion by popular vote. Apparently, the long period of abortion being deemed legal sent a message to many that “legal” equals “moral”. William Safir, famous journalist said it quite well: “The right to do something does not mean that doing it is right.”

Here at Blessed Sacrament, we continue to pray for protection of the unborn regardless of the current state of the law which too often fails to protect the innocent. The next monthly Pro-Life Mass and Rosary will be offered on Saturday, December 7, 2024, at 8AM. Please join us.
