PRO-LIFE UPDATE, AUGUST 2023

Once again there was a mixture of good and bad news on the Pro-Life front this past month. First the good news. Illinois Governor Pritzker signed a new law (SB 1909) directed against Pro-Life crisis pregnancy centers which provide pregnancy testing, information regarding childbirth and parenting, car seats, baby food, etc. but, of course offer no information or resources on abortion. The pregnancy centers make no charges for their services. Most of their staffs are volunteers. The law provides for possible penalties of up to $50,000 for any pregnancy center which engages in "any deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise or misrepresentation" including omitting "any material fact, with the intent that others rely on ... the omission of such material fact." Lawyers with the Thomas More Society within hours of the enactment of SB 1909 filed suit, on First Amendment grounds, seeking an injunction stopping enforcement of the law on behalf of the National Institute of Family and Life Advocates and other Pro-Life entities. One of the Plaintiffs, Rockford Family Initiative, holds prayer vigils and performs "sidewalk counseling" near abortion clinics. They were concerned, for example, that SB 1909 would be enforced against them if they stated that "a fetus is a human" or that "life begins at conception." On August 4, 2023 the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois granted the motion for a preliminary injunction against the law and issued a very strong 14 page order finding that the law would violate the First Amendment, free speech rights of the Plaintiffs. The injunction is preliminary only. The suit will continue and the injunction may be vacated or otherwise changed. If the Court's ruling becomes final, it will very likely be appealed but for now Illinois crisis pregnancy centers are safe from enforcement of this law which very likely was intended to stop their Pro-Life efforts and put them out of business.

In our March, April, and May issues of the Pro-Life Update, we discussed the important questions arising from abortions caused by administration of drugs, in particular the pill Mifepristone. Presently, the majority of abortions in our country are performed in that way rather than by surgery. In April the United States Appellate Court for the Fifth Circuit issued a preliminary order allowing this drug to remain on the market but restricting how it is dispensed and prescribed the issued according to rules promulgated by the Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA). In a 96 page ruling issued on August 16, 2023, that Court ruled that the FDA was wrong when it allowed: (1) use of the drug anytime up to 10 weeks of gestation rather than the previous restriction of no later than 7 weeks; (2) prescription of mifepristone by medical professionals other than physicians; and (3) delivery to pregnant women by mail. However the Fifth Circuit ruling is subject to a previously issued U.S. Supreme Court order placing all such changes on hold pending further litigation. It is likely that the Supreme Court will have the final say on this issue sometime next year.

In our July Pro-Life Update, we reported on abortion news from the State of Ohio regarding two ballot propositions scheduled to be voted upon in August and November 2023. On November 7, 2023, Ohioans will vote on a proposed amendment to the state constitution which, if passed, would allow abortion any time up to viability (generally thought to be at about 24 weeks) and would also legalize abortion after viability if "in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician [abortion] is necessary to protect the pregnant patient's life or health." In effect this would likely make abortion legal even after viability because the term regarding the "health" of a pregnant woman will be construed, according to the amendment itself, quite broadly. This definition is like the one spelled out in the Illinois Reproductive Health Act to include "all factors that are relevant to the patient's health and well-being including but not limited to, physical, emotional, psychological, and familial health and age." On August 8, 2023, Ohio voters rejected a proposed law which would have required a vote of 60% + 1 rather than a simple majority to amend the state constitution. Therefore, if there is a majority vote in favor of the proposed amendment on November 7, 2023, Ohio will have a radical pro-abortion law similar to the one we have in Illinois. Please re-double your prayer efforts to save the lives of Ohio babies.

Please join us for the next Pro-Life Mass and Rosary on Saturday, September 2, 2023 at 8:00 AM. Also, please plan to join a prayer service recognizing the Eleventh Annual National Day of Remembrance of Aborted Children on Saturday, September 9, 2023 at Saint Mary's Cemetery at 1:00 PM. See the article below for more details.

Eleventh Annual Memorial Service for Aborted Children at St. Mary Cemetery

On Saturday, September 9th, Pro-Life Americans throughout the country will gather at the gravesites of aborted babies and other memorial sites dedicated in their honor for the Eleventh Annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children, a joint project of The Pro-Life Action League, Priests for Life and Citizens for a Pro-Life Society.

Solemn vigils will be held at these sites to commemorate the more than 50 million children who have lost their lives to legal abortion since 1973, and to remind our society of the humanity of the unborn child. Please join us for the memorial service in our community:

Event: National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children

Let Us Pray for All Students ...

Loving God, we pray for our children in school. We thank You for granting our children immeasurable skills, talents, abilities, and spiritual gifts they need to serve You in their lives.

Dear Lord, help them to utilize that knowledge that they continue gaining in school to serve You first and others second.

Lord, we pray that Your will be done in their lives. May each of them discover their skills, talents, and passions and work hard to learn how to grow them to serve You well in the future according to Your Holy Will.

Dear Father, make available to them trusted teachers and advisers who will teach, train, lead, and mentor them.

When they turn to You for help, love, strength, and protection, kindly have mercy and hear them. Help them to learn and grow and eventually lead fruitful and prosperous lives. Amen. - Catholicreadings.org

Oremos por todos los estudiantes...

Amado Dios, oramos por nuestros hijos en la escuela. Te agradecemos por otorgarles a nuestros hijos habilidades, talentos, habilidades y dones espirituales inconmensurables que necesitan para servirte en sus vidas.

Querido Señor, ayúdalos a utilizar ese conocimiento que continúan adquiriendo en la escuela para servirte primero a ti y después a los demás.

Señor, oramos para que se haga tu voluntad en sus vidas. Que cada uno de ellos descubra sus habilidades, talentos y pasiones y trabaje duro para aprender cómo hacerlos crecer para servirte bien en el futuro de acuerdo con Tu Santa Voluntad.

Querido Padre, pon a su disposición maestros y consejeros de confianza que los enseñen, capaciten, guíen y orienten.

Cuando recurran a ti en busca de ayuda, amor, fuerza y protección, ten piedad y escúchalos. Ayúdalos a aprender y crecer y eventualmente llevar una vida fructífera y próspera. Amén. - lecturascaticas.org

A Prayer for the Care of Creation: September 1

In 2015, after the publication of his encyclical Laudato Si', Pope Francis established September 1 as an observance for the Catholic Church of prayer for the care of creation. Despite our sins and the daunting challenges before us, we never lose heart. In the words of Pope Francis, "The Creator does not abandon us; he never forsakes his loving plan or repents of having created us ... for he has united himself definitively to our earth, and his love constantly impels us to find new ways forward."

Let us pray today and throughout the year: O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, who are so precious in your eyes. God of love, show us our place in this world as channels of your love for all the creatures of this earth. God of mercy, may we receive your forgiveness and convey your mercy throughout our common home. Praise be to you! Amen. ©The Catholic Health Association of the United States

Una oración por el cuidado de la creación: 1 de septiembre

En 2015, luego de la publicación de su encíclica Laudato Si', el Papa Francisco estableció el 1 de septiembre como una observancia para la Iglesia Católica de oración por el cuidado de la creación. A pesar de nuestros pecados y los enormes desafíos que tenemos por delante, nunca nos desanimamos. En palabras del Papa Francisco, "El Creador no nos abandona; nunca abandona su designio amoroso ni se arrepiente de habernos creado... pues se ha unido definitivamente a nuestra tierra, y su amor nos impulsa constantemente a encontrar nuevos caminos hacia adelante".

Oremos hoy y durante todo el año: Oh Dios de los pobres, ayúdanos a rescatar a los abandonados y olvidados de esta tierra, que son tan preciosos a tus ojos. Dios de amor, muéstranos nuestro lugar en este mundo como canales de tu amor por todas las criaturas de esta tierra. Dios de misericordia, que recibamos tu perdón y transmitamos tu misericordia por toda nuestra casa común. ¡Alabado seas! Amén. ©La Asociación Católica de Salud de los Estados Unidos

August 27, 2023 - 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isn't it a bit weird that Catholics call the Pope "papa," father? This Sunday provides us with essential Scriptural background on the papacy, the petrine office. Jesus gives Peter the "keys to the kingdom of heaven," after witnessing to the special grace Peter has to know Jesus' true identity. Many have pointed out that the "keys" refer back to the figure of Eliakim, King David's prime minister. True enough. But notice this is not mere authority or power. It's a family relationship. The Lord says to Eliakim, "He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem" (Isaiah 22:21). David's prime minister was a spiritual father to the family of Israel. Peter, and his successors, will be spiritual fathers in the family of the Church.

This means we have a serious obligation to not only recognize the Pope's authority, but also to love him with the affection of children for their papa. We should never speak about him with disrespect or rancor. We should listen to him with trusting hearts, and ignore the slander thrown at him in various media. When we show the world we are loving and obedient to our Holy Papa, perhaps they'll see more clearly that the Church is indeed God's beloved family.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

27 de agosto de 2023 - 21<sup>er</sup> Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Jesús les preguntó: "Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo? (Mateo 16:15). Esta pregunta es válida en la actualidad, no está pasada de moda. Mucha gente se sigue preguntando quien es Jesús y quien es la Iglesia. La respuesta es individual, ya que viene de acuerdo a la fe de cada persona. Hay un dicho popular que dice: "Obras son amores y no buenas razones". Con hechos, no con palabrería, demos razones de ejemplo, de vida cristiana. El Señor desea que participemos en su misión de hacer crecer su Reino. Entonces, confesémosle nuestro compromiso de amor y de fe.

"Confesar a Jesús es una gracia del Padre. Decir que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios vivo, que es el Redentor, es una gracia que nosotros debemos pedir: Padre dame la gracia de confesar a Jesús (Papa Francisco 08/23/20). Tal como Pedro lo hizo: "Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo del Dios vivo". Y fue felicitado, como la mujer cananea del domingo pasado: "Feliz eres, Simón Barjona, porque esto no te lo ha revelado la carne ni la sangre, sino mi Padre que está en los Cielos" (Mateo 16:17). Señor, cuando me dejo guiar por el Espíritu Santo, de seguro mis pensamientos, palabras y deseos son llevados a tomar acciones buenas. Gracias por tu presencia en mi vida. Tanto en las cosas difíciles como en las más sencillas de la vida diaria. Ayúdame a perseverar en la justicia y honestidad tan urgentes en la sociedad actual. ©LPi
