September 7, 2025 – 7 De Septiembre 2025 - TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Over the last two thousand years Jesus has been given many titles, from Bread of Life to Our Savior. One of his first titles, going back to when he first stood and proclaimed God's word in the synagogue, is Rabbi, or Teacher. How appropriate to focus on that title on this first Sunday of September, a time of year when millions of young people are returning to school. Today we hear Jesus teach the crowds what it means to be a disciple. May he teach us as well as we gather together in his name.

Introducción a la Liturgia del Día

En el transcurso de los últimos dos mil años a Jesús le han dado muchos títulos, desde el pan de la vida hasta nuestro Salvador. Uno de sus primeros títulos, remontándonos al primer momento en que proclamó la palabra de Dios en la sinagoga, es Rabí o Maestro. Cuán apropiado es enfocarnos en ese título en el primer domingo de septiembre, el tiempo del año en que millones de gente joven regresan a la escuela. Hoy oímos a Jesús enseñarles a las multitudes lo que significa ser su discípulo. Que nos enseñe también a nosotros reunidos aquí en su nombre

Pastor's Column

Discipleship requires full surrender to God's way.

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and comes after me cannot be my disciple. Jesus' words to the crowds are difficult to hear. The demands he makes of his disciples are too much. Hate your family? Carry your own cross? Renouncing all your possessions? They range from unreasonable to unthinkable. Can he possibly mean to be so harsh? First, the use of the word hate can be interpreted and translated from one language to another in different ways. In this context, I would say for our culture "reject," or renounce not "hate," could be more appropriate. As humans, our main weakness is making our children, spouses, parents or members of our family more important to us than God. We make them gods and serve them with the best of ourselves. If you do it Jesus' way, then it will look like you "hate" them. It is exactly this, that Jesus is asking of us as his disciples.

Secondly, possessions can also be gods. It is a second great human weakness after family, to love possessions and money. Renouncing all possessions doesn't necessarily mean leaving oneself destitute, but no longer regarding what you have as your own property. To follow Jesus means to choose Jesus, who gives us everything we need, even the promise of eternal life, over those things most dear to us: our families, our homes, our wealth, and all our "stuff." Let us look to his first disciples: the twelve apostles. They left their families, their homes, and their possessions, choosing to live a difficult lifestyle instead. Every day they calculated the cost of discipleship and concluded that following Jesus was worth everything they gave up.

Saint Paul asks his convert Philemon to do something radical and selfless: to welcome back Onesimus, who ran away and found Christ, and accept him not as a slave but as a brother. Onesimus, whom Paul trusted to return to Philemon and deliver this letter, could have kept running rather than take the chance that Philemon would ignore the letter and re-enslave him. The fact that this letter not only survived but became part of the Bible implies that Philemon kept it and agreed to Paul's appeal.

Discipleship demands we make radical and selfless choices. It requires us to make a commitment to walk the walk or just stay as we are. Jesus' way contradicts cultural beliefs and ways of doing things. It contradicts our own way of thinking and doing things. It requires a full submission to Jesus' way. I am human and he is God. He is the way, the truth and life. I surrender and give up everything to follow him. It is a daily commitment.

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Sam

¡Dios está con nosotros!

Columna del Pastor

En aquel tiempo, caminaba con Jesús una gran muchedumbre y él, volviéndose a sus discípulos, les dijo: "Si alguno quiere seguirme y no me prefiere a su padre y a su madre, a su esposa y a sus hijos, a sus hermanos y a sus hermanas, más aún, a sí mismo, no puede ser mi discípulo. Y el que no carga su cruz y me sigue, no puede ser mi discípulo. Las palabras de Jesús a la multitud son difíciles de escuchar. Lo que le exige a sus discípulos es demasiado. ¿Preferirlo a él más que a la propia familia? ¿Cargar tu propia cruz? ¿Renunciar a los propios bienes? Estas cosas pasan de irrazonables a impensables. ¿Es posible que Jesús quiera ser tan severo? En primer lugar, como seres humanos, nuestra principal debilidad es dar a nuestros hijos, cónyuges, padres o familiares más importancia que a Dios. Los convertimos en dioses y les servimos con lo mejor de nosotros mismos. Si lo haces a la manera de Jesús, parecerá que los odias. Es precisamente eso lo que Jesús nos pide como discípulos.

En segundo lugar, las posesiones también pueden ser dioses. Es una segunda gran debilidad humana, después de la familia, amar las posesiones y el dinero. Renunciar a todas las posesiones no significa necesariamente quedarse en la indigencia, sino dejar de considerar lo que se tiene como propio. Seguir a Jesús significa elegir a Jesús, quien nos da todo lo que necesitamos, incluso la promesa de la vida eterna, por encima de aquello que más apreciamos: nuestras familias, nuestros hogares, nuestras riquezas y todas nuestras pertenencias. Observemos a sus primeros discípulos: los doce apóstoles. Dejaron sus familias, sus hogares y sus posesiones, optando por un estilo de vida difícil. Cada día calculaban el coste del discipulado y concluían que seguir a Jesús valía todo lo que renunciaban.

San Pablo le pide a su converso Filemón que haga algo radical y desinteresado: acoger de nuevo a Onésimo, quien huyó y encontró a Cristo, y aceptarlo no como esclavo, sino como hermano. Onésimo, en quien Pablo confiaba para que regresara a Filemón y le entregara esta carta, podría haber seguido huyendo en lugar de correr el riesgo de que Filemón ignorara la carta y lo volviera a esclavizar. El hecho de que esta carta no solo sobreviviera, sino que se convirtiera en parte de la Biblia, implica que Filemón la conservó y accedió a la súplica de Pablo.

El discipulado exige que tomemos decisiones radicales y desinteresadas. Requiere que nos comprometamos a vivir como lo hacemos o simplemente a quedarnos como estamos. El camino de Jesús contradice las creencias culturales y la forma de hacer las cosas. Contradice nuestra propia manera de pensar y hacer las cosas. Requiere una sumisión total al camino de Jesús. Soy humano y él es Dios. Él es el camino, la verdad y la vida. Me entrego y lo dejo todo para seguirlo. Es un compromiso diario.

Cristo Jesús, Padre Sam

Invitation to Pray

A Prayer Group for Evangelization and Renewal is forming. To help us focus on Evangelization and Renewal, everyone is invited to pray this prayer daily.

"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.' But how can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? And how can people preach unless they are sent?" –Romans 10:13-15

Heavenly Father,
 Pour forth your Holy Spirit to inspire me with these words from Holy Scripture.
 Stir in my soul the desire to renew my faith and deepen my relationship with your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ
 so that I might truly believe in and live the Good News.
 Open my heart to hear the Gospel and grant me the confidence to proclaim the Good News to others.
 Pour out your Spirit, so that I might be strengthened to go forth and witness to the Gospel in my everyday life through my words and actions.
 In moments of hesitation, remind me:
If not me, then who will proclaim the Gospel?
If not now, then when will the Gospel be proclaimed?
If not the truth of the Gospel, then what shall I proclaim?
 God, our Father, I pray that through the Holy Spirit
 I might hear the call of the New Evangelization to deepen my faith,
 grow in confidence to proclaim the Gospel and boldly witness to the saving grace of your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
 Amen.

Invitación a Orar

Se está formando un Grupo de Oración para la Evangelización y la Renovación. Para ayudarnos a enfocarnos en la Evangelización y la Renovación, todos están invitados a rezar esta oración diariamente.

"Pues todo el que invoque al Señor como a su Dios, será salvado por él. Ahora bien, ¿cómo van a invocar al Señor, si no creen en él? ¿Y cómo van a creer en él, si no han oído hablar de él? ¿Y cómo van a oír hablar de él, si no hay nadie que se lo anuncie? ¿Y cómo va a haber quienes lo anuncien, si no son enviados? Por eso dice la Escritura: ¡Qué hermoso es ver correr sobre los montes al mensajero que trae buenas noticias!" (Rom 10:13-15)

Padre Celestial, Derrama Tu Espíritu Santo para que me inspiren estas palabras de las Sagradas Escrituras.
 Mueve en mi alma el deseo a renovar mi fe y profundizar en mi relación con tu Hijo, nuestro Señor Jesucristo, para que pueda verdaderamente creer y vivir la Buena Nueva.
 Abre mi corazón para que pueda oír el Evangelio y dame confianza para proclamar la Buena Nueva a los demás.
 Derrama Tu Espíritu para que me fortalezca y así pueda ser testigo del Evangelio en mi vida diaria por medio de mis palabras y acciones.
 Que en los momentos de dudas recuerde:
Si no yo, entonces ¿quién proclamará el Evangelio?
Si no es ahora, entonces- ¿cuándo se proclamará el Evangelio?
Si no proclamo la verdad del Evangelio, entonces,
¿qué proclamaré?
Dios, nuestro Padre, te ruego que por medio del Espíritu
Santo, pueda oír el llamado a la Nueva Evangelización para profundizar en mi fe, crecer en la confianza para
poder proclamar el Evangelio,- y ser testigo valiente de la gracia salvadora de tu Hijo, Jesucristo, quien vive y reina
contigo, en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

PARISH BOOK CLUB

Our parish book club will resume on Monday, Sept. 15th in the church basement, St. Maurice Room, at 6:30pm. The book club meets every first and third Monday of the month. At our first meeting we will begin reading "The Barn" by Wright Thompson. The book is a shocking and revelatory account of the murder of Emmett Till and the forgotten landmark that signifies silence and complicity in the sprawling history of his murder. This book can be ordered through the Chicago Public Library. For additional information, please call Alicia Krok (773) 847-5341. All new members are warmly welcomed.

Memorial Service for Aborted Children at St. Mary Cemetery in Evergreen Park on Saturday, September 13th

On Saturday, September 13th, pro-life Americans throughout the country will gather at the gravesites of aborted babies and other memorial sites dedicated in their honor for the 13th annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children. Solemn vigils will be held at these sites to commemorate the more than 65 million children who have lost their lives to legal abortion since 1973, and to remind our society of the humanity of the unborn child. The memorial service at St. Mary Cemetery takes place at the gravesite of 500 babies who were discovered and retrieved from the garbage dumpsters of several downtown Chicago abortion facilities in early 1987. It is one of the earliest of the gravesites across the United States. Please join us for the memorial service in our community:

Event: National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children

When: Saturday, September 13th, 1:00 p.m.

Where: St. Mary Cemetery, 87th Street at Hamlin Avenue in Evergreen Park

More Info: Contact John Ryan at (708) 945-8247 or domer\_10305@yahoo.com

Please bring your rosary and your lawn chair!

Together let us remember the victims of abortion and pray for a final end to this injustice in our land during the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children.
