ISMAEL'S THOUGHTS

During this pandemic, we certainly have faced many, many challenges, and one of them has been about celebrating the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. Even though we never stopped celebrating masses, we had several weeks without having the faithful present during our celebrations. Once we were able to have people at mass, they were able to receive Holy Communion in their hands. For many years, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops have authorized the faithful to receive the Body of Christ either in their hands or on their tongues, and that is good. But when people did not have the option to receive Holy Communion on their tongues because of the high contagiousness of the Covid-19 virus, some people decided not to receive it at all. Most of them have, as their reason, that their hands were not worthy to touch the Body of Christ.

That 'unworthiness' reminds me of what a priest friend of mine once told me. His father was a very hard-working farmer, and when my friend decided to go to the seminary, his father supported him in every possible way, even though he did not have a lot of money. When my friend celebrated his first mass, his father stood in front of him at the moment of Holy Communion. My friend was looking at his hands, hard and calloused with years of hard work. These were the hands that took care of him, disciplined him, and made it possible for him to study for the priesthood. He was so pleased to place Jesus in his father's worn hands. He imagined that the Lord would have been delighted to rest, even if only momentarily, in the sturdy hands of a man like his own foster father, Joseph, the carpenter.

Who is worthy to touch the Most Holy Body of Christ? No one! Not even the Holy Father or any bishop or priest, but Jesus comes to us because He wants to be very close to us, not only for adoration before the consecrated host in the monstrance, but inside of us. He comes to us not because we are worthy to receive Him, but because He loves us. Certainly, there are some requirements we need to fulfill in order to receive Him properly. According to the Code of Canon Law, people receiving the Most Holy Eucharist requires that they have sufficient knowledge and careful preparation so that they understand the mystery of Christ according to their capacity and are able to receive the body of Christ with faith and devotion (Can 913 §1). Also, a person who is conscious of grave sin is not to celebrate Mass or receive the Body of the Lord without previous sacramental confession (Can 916). And a person who wants to receive Holy Communion is to abstain at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine (Can 919 §1).

As Pope Francis says in his encyclical, Evangelii Gaudium, the Eucharist is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak. It is for weak sinners who are trying to be faithful followers of Jesus in word and deed. Today as we celebrate the great feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, let us commit ourselves to prepare properly to receive Him, either in our hands or on our tongues, but with a strong commitment of being worthy disciples of Jesus Christ our Lord and God.

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Ismael

PENSAMIENTOS DE ISMAEL

Durante esta pandemia hemos enfrentado muchos desafíos, y uno de ellos ha sido sobre la celebración del Santísimo Sacramento de la Eucaristía. Aunque que nunca dejamos de celebrar misas, tuvimos varias semanas sin tener fieles durante las celebraciones. Una vez que pudimos tener personas en misa, pudieron recibir la Sagrada Comunión solamente en sus manos. Durante hace años la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos ha autorizado a los fieles a recibir el Cuerpo de Cristo en sus manos, pero a algunas personas todavía les gusta recibirla en su boca, y eso es bueno. Pero cuando las personas no tenían opción de recibir la Sagrada Comunión en su boca, debido a la alta contagiosidad del virus Covid-19, algunas personas decidieron no recibirla en absoluto. La mayoría de ellos tienen, como razón, que sus manos no eran dignas de tocar el Cuerpo de Cristo.

Esa "indignidad" me recuerda lo que un sacerdote amigo mío me dijo una vez. Su padre era un campesino muy trabajador, y cuando mi amigo decidió ir al seminario, aunque no tenían mucho dinero, su padre lo apoyó totalmente. Cuando mi amigo celebró su primera misa, su padre estaba frente a él en el momento de la Santa Comunión. Él estaba mirando sus manos, duras y callosas por los años de trabajo duro, que cuidaban de él, lo disciplinaron, e hicieron posible que estudiar para el sacerdocio. Él estaba muy contento de poder poner a Jesús en las manos desgastadas de su padre. Imaginó que el Señor habría estado encantado de descansar, aunque sólo fuera por un momento, en las manos robustas de un hombre como su propio padre, José, el carpintero.

¿Quién es digno de tocar el Cuerpo de Cristo? ¡Nadie! Ni siquiera el Santo Padre o cualquier obispo o sacerdote, pero Jesús viene a nosotros porque quiere estar muy cerca de nosotros, no sólo para la adoración ante la hostia consagrada en la custodia, pero dentro de nosotros. Él viene a nosotros no porque seamos dignos de recibirla, sino porque Él nos ama. Ciertamente, hay algunos requisitos que necesitamos cumplir para recibirla adecuadamente. De acuerdo con el Código de Derecho Canónico, las personas que reciben la Santísima Eucaristía requieren que tengan el suficiente conocimiento y hayan recibido una preparación cuidadosa, de manera que entiendan el misterio de Cristo en la medida de su capacidad, y puedan recibir el cuerpo del Señor con fe y devoción (Can 913 §1). Además, una persona que tenga conciencia de hallarse en pecado grave, no celebre la misa ni comulgue el Cuerpo del Señor sin acudir antes a la confesión sacramental (Can 916). Y una persona que quiere recibir la Sagrada Comunión debe abstenerse de tomar cualquier alimento y bebida al menos desde una hora antes de la sagrada comunión, a excepción sólo de agua y de las medicinas (Can 919 §1).

Como ha mencionado el Santo Padre Francisco en su encíclica Evangelii Gaudium, la Eucaristía no es un premio para los perfectos sino un generoso remedio y un alimento para los débiles. Pero los pecadores débiles que están tratando de ser fieles seguidores de Jesús en la palabra y obra. Hoy que celebramos la gran fiesta del Corpus Christi, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, comprometámonos a siempre prepararnos adecuadamente para recibirla, ya sea en nuestras manos o en nuestras bocas, pero con un fuerte compromiso de ser dignos discípulos de Jesucristo nuestro Dios y Señor.

Su hermano en Cristo Jesús,
P. Ismael

PRIESTS' HEALTH AND RETIREMENT COLLECTION - JUNE 13

Priests have dedicated their lives to ministry, serving our needs as Catholics from the moment we are baptized until we receive last rites before entering eternal life. Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA provides for the health and well-being of 469 active and 246 retired archdiocesan priests.

Today, with healthcare and retirement costs rising, there is an urgent need for your support. Your generosity to the Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA ensures that our priests can continue their meaningful work in our parishes by providing funds for health insurance, medication, wellness costs, nursing care, independent retirement living residences, and priests' retirement funds.

The archdiocese is committed to caring for our priests, but we need your assistance. Your generosity in the Priests' Health and Retirement Collection on June 13 will not only ensure the health and well-being of our priests, but also support their ability to continue meaningful work in our parishes and communities.

COLECCIÓN DE SALUD Y JUBILACIÓN DE LOS SACERDOTES - 13 DE JUNIO

Los sacerdotes han dedicado sus vidas al ministerio, atendiendo nuestras necesidades como católicos desde el momento en que nos bautizamos hasta que recibimos los últimos ritos antes de entrar en la vida eterna. Salud y jubilación de los sacerdotes / PRMAA proporciona la salud y el bienestar de 469 sacerdotes arquidiocesanos activos y 246 retirados.

Hoy en día, con el aumento de los costos de la atención médica y la jubilación, existe una necesidad urgente de su apoyo. Su generosidad a la Salud y Jubilación de los Sacerdotes / PRMAA garantiza que nuestros sacerdotes puedan continuar su trabajo significativo en nuestras parroquias al proporcionar fondos para seguro médico, medicamentos, costos de bienestar, atención de enfermería, residencias de jubilación independientes y fondos de jubilación de los sacerdotes.

La arquidiócesis está comprometida con el cuidado de nuestros sacerdotes, pero necesitamos su ayuda. Su generosidad en la Colecta de Salud y Jubilación de los Sacerdotes el 13 de junio no solo asegurará la salud y el bienestar de nuestros sacerdotes, sino que también apoyará su capacidad para continuar un trabajo significativo en nuestras parroquias y comunidades.

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY (THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST)

Corpus Christi (Body and Blood of Christ) is a Eucharistic solemnity, or better, the solemn commemoration of the institution of that sacrament. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday, assuredly, marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday.

DOMINGO DE CORPUS CHRISTI (EL SANTÍSIMO CUERPO Y SANGRE DE CRISTO)

Corpus Christi (Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo) es una solemnidad eucarística, o mejor, la conmemoración solemne de la institución de ese sacramento. Es, además, el acto oficial de homenaje y gratitud de la Iglesia a Cristo, que al instituir la Sagrada Eucaristía entregó a la Iglesia su mayor tesoro. El Jueves Santo, seguramente, marca el aniversario de la institución, pero la conmemoración de la Pasión del Señor esa misma noche suprime el regocijo propio de la ocasión. La observancia de hoy, por lo tanto, acentúa el aspecto alegre del Jueves Santo.

TANTUM ERGO

Tantum Ergo is the last two stanzas from the Eucharistic Hymn (Pange Lingua) composed by St. Thomas Aquinas and is used at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who recite it and a plenary indulgence is granted to those who recite it on Holy Thursday or Corpus Christi. At Benediction today, the song will be sung in Latin and the English translation is provided.

Tantum ergo Sacramentum
Veneremur cernui:
Et antiquum documentum
Novo cedat ritui:
Praestet fides supplementum
Sensuum defectui.

Genitori, Genitoque
Laus et iubilatio,
Salus, honor, virtus quoque
Sit et benedictio:
Procedenti ab utroque
Compar sit laudatio.
Amen.

V. Panem de caelo praestitisti eis. (T.P. Alleluia)

R. Omne delectamentum in se habentem. (T.P. Alleluia)

Oremus: Deus, qui nobis sub sacramento mirabili, passionis tuae memoriam reliquisti: tribue, quae sumus, ita nos corporis et sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari, ut redemp tionis tuae fructum in nobis iugiter sentiamus. Qui vivis et regnas in saecula saeculorum.

R. Amen.

Down in adoration falling,
Lo! the sacred Host we hail,
Lo! oe'r ancient forms departing
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith for all defects supplying,
Where the feeble senses fail.

To the everlasting Father,
And the Son Who reigns on high
With the Holy Spirit proceeding
Forth from each eternally,
Be salvation, honor blessing,
Might and endless majesty.
Amen.

V. Thou hast given them bread from heaven (P.T. Alleluia).

R. Having within it all sweetness (P.T. Alleluia).

Let us pray: O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament left us a memorial of Thy Passion: grant, we implore Thee, that we may so venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, as always to be conscious of the fruit of Thy Redemption. Thou who livest and reignest forever and ever.
R. Amen.
